A group of animals once played a trick,
On a greedy frog named Tiddalick.
From his mouth came rain
And he vowed never again,
Would he drink so much he'd be sick.

Line 1, line 2 and line 5 rhyme.
Line 3 and 4 rhyme.
Tiddalick the Frog

My limerick poem about Tiddalick the Frog:

__________________________________________

__________________________________________

__________________________________________

__________________________________________

__________________________________________